My dear Parishioners,

The Catholic Church highlights the wondrous gift of the Eucharist twice on her liturgical calendar. First on Holy Thursday, we celebrate its institution when Christ breaks bread and shares wine with the Apostles. For everlasting memory, He says, with the bread in hand, "This is my body that is for you." And with the chalice, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it in remembrance of me." The Savior, Who is the unblemished Lamb, unites His Passover meal with the sacrifice of the Cross. As one biblical scholar put it, "The Jews offered animal sacrifices to God, believing that life was in the blood, and the animal blood was a substitute for human lifeblood. Following this Jewish tradition, Jesus offered his own lifeblood as a substitute for the lifeblood of all human beings and, so, sealed the New Covenant made between God and humankind bring new life to the world." In short on the altar of the Cross, Christ is both priest and victim, offering Himself once and for all for our salvation. The Apostles, who were the first priests, offered this sacrifice and this meal in memory of His Life, Death, and Resurrection, as their forefathers offered the Passover meal in memory of their deliverance from Pharaoh. And this same sacrifice and meal is brought forward to us in the celebration of the Holy Mass.

The same Church celebrates on this Solemnity of Corpus Christi, the mystery and the truth of the Real Presence. What is offered to us under the signs of bread and wine is in fact Christ's Body and Blood. When the Savior took the bread and wine into His hands, He had a far greater intention. Again, I go to His words, "This is my Body, this is my Blood." He did not say this is a facsimile, this is a symbol, this is a metaphor, no Christ meant what He said! We know this because of the Apostle John. It is recounted in the sixth chapter of his Gospel narrative that many take offense to the Savior's teaching that one must eat His flesh and drink His blood if they wish to have eternal life. Many take leave of Jesus prompting Him to ask Simon Peter if you would do likewise? To which the fisherman replies, "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God." (Jn 6: 68-69) Prior to blessed Peter's statement of faith, Christ links what will become His Eucharist to the manna and quail that God provided for the Jews during their long desert sojourn to the Promised Land. In short, Christ had ample opportunity to dispel any misunderstanding on the part of His listeners, but He is emphatic on this point, one must partake of Jesus' flesh and blood to have a part in Him! Across time and eternity, in the elements of food and drink, God demonstrates His desire to be near to His people, near to all of us, hence Christ real, true, and abiding presence in the Eucharist. It is the food that will strengthen us on this pilgrimage through towards life everlasting.

In conclusion, we celebrate on Holy Thursday the beginnings of this great Sacrament. This day, Corpus Christi, we celebrate what is conveyed by said Sacrament, under the appearances of bread and wine, the Savior's desire to accompany us and to transform us through and through by being presence to us, but also providing for our spiritual hunger. Allow me to leave with the opening prayer for this Sunday's Mass:

*O God, who in this wonderful Sacrament have left us a memorial of your Passion, grant us, we pray, so to revere the sacred mysteries of your Body and Blood that we may always experience in ourselves the fruits of your redemption.
Who live and reign with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.*

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Daniel O. Kingsley,
Pastor
